

The Collect and Readings for The Last Sunday of Trinity

The Collect

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them
that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word,
we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life,
which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Prayer after Communion

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry
with the bread of his life
and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness
sustain us by your true and living bread;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Today's Readings

First Reading Jeremiah 31:7-9

The God of Israel promises to bring home to their land those who know their need of salvation.

Second Reading Hebrews 7:23-end

Jesus is the eternal High Priest through whom we have access to God.

Gospel Mark 10:46-end

Jesus heals a blind man known as Bartimaeus, whose faith enables him to ask for help.

First Reading

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah:

<sup>7</sup>For thus says the LORD:

Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say,
'Save, O LORD, your people,
the remnant of Israel.'

<sup>8</sup>See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north,
and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth,
among them the blind and the lame,
those with child and those in labour, together;
a great company, they shall return here.

<sup>9</sup>With weeping they shall come,
and with consolations I will lead them back,
I will let them walk by brooks of water,
in a straight path in which they shall not stumble;
for I have become a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my firstborn.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 126

<sup>1</sup> When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
then were we like those who dream.

<sup>2</sup> Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy.

<sup>3</sup> Then they said among the nations,
'The Lord has done great things for them.'

<sup>4</sup> The Lord has done great things for us,
and we are glad indeed.

<sup>5</sup> Restore our fortunes, O Lord,
like the watercourses of the Negev.

<sup>6</sup> Those who sowed with tears
will reap with songs of joy.

<sup>7</sup> Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed,
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

The Lord has done great things for us and we are glad.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews:

<sup>23</sup>The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; <sup>24</sup>but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever.

<sup>25</sup>Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

<sup>26</sup>For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. <sup>27</sup>Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. <sup>28</sup>For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord

<sup>46</sup>As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. <sup>47</sup>When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' <sup>48</sup>Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!' <sup>49</sup>Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' <sup>50</sup>So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. <sup>51</sup>Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' <sup>52</sup>Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.
